

Electronic Speed Controllers control the signal that goes to the motors and tells the motors how fast to spin.

The motors supply the power for the drone to move.

The electronic speed controllers, motors etc mount into the power distribution board.

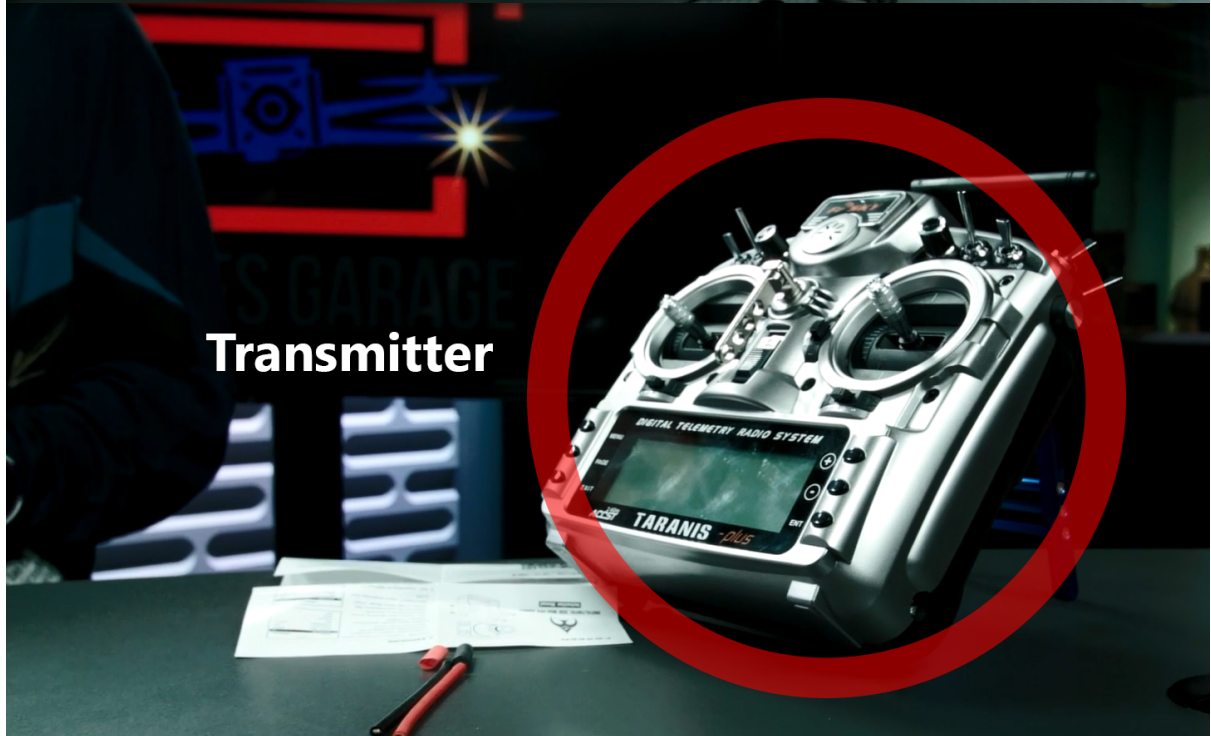

The flight computer along with the motors allow the drone to fly.

Antenna

Transmitter

The camera hooks to the video transmitter which has an antenna which transmits the video to the pilot who is flying the copter.